WITT MARES HONORED WITH COMMUNITY IMPACT AWARD FROM THE UNITED WAY OF SOUTH HAMPTON ROADS

Witt Mares' Efforts Helped Contribute to the $17 Million Raised for Health and Human Service Programs

NEWPORT NEWS, VA - Witt Mares, PLC, a regional accounting and consulting firm serving clients throughout the Mid-Atlantic, announced that the firm was one of 26 organizations that received a Community Impact Award from the United Way of South Hampton Roads.

Witt Mares was honored by the United Way of South Hampton Roads for its exceptional employee giving campaign, which is vital for health and human service programs within the community.

The Community Impact Award is presented to organizations that have demonstrated active involvement in their community through giving in employee campaigns, advocating community involvement, and volunteering in their community. This year, the United Way of South Hampton Roads raised well over $17 million that will continue to fund these needed community programs.

“We are truly honored to have been recognized by the Southside United Way with the Community Impact Award,” said Mary Aldrich, Chief Administrative Operating Officer, at Witt Mares, PLC. “Witt Mares has been an active member of the corporate community for 30 years and we recognize how important it is to give back and support our community and neighbors, particularly in this difficult economy.”

Aldrich, along with Harvey L. Johnson, CPA, assurance supervisor, received the award at a reception honoring the Community Impact Award recipients held March 27th at the Norfolk Waterside Marriott.
